(a) whether it is a fact that the Central Vigilance Commission has identified hundred of departments of various Ministries as areas of corruption;

(b) if so, the names of such departments;

(c) whether Government have so far taken any effective steps to make the functioning of these departments corruption-free; and

(d) if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PERSONNEL, PUBLIC GRIEVANCES AND PENSIONS (SHRIMATI VASUNDHARA RAJE): (a) and (b) The Central Vigilance Commission (CVC) has not identified any Department of the Government as area of corruption.

(c) and (d) The Government is fully alive to ensure the corruption free functioning of the Government Departments. Polices in this regard have been formulated and constantly monitored for their effective implementation. Necessary modifications are also carried out from time to time in order to make them more effective and responsive to the needs of a changing environment. The Government has also set up Information and Facilitation Counters (IFCs) in various Ministries/Departments to provide information regarding procedures and schemes of concerned organizations to ensure greater transparency and for eliminating corruption. Besides, the Secretary of the concerned Department, assisted by Chief Vigilance Officer (CVO), is made responsible for ensuring probity and integrity in that Department.

Efforts by IAS officers to get posted abroad

987. SHRI K. M. KHAN: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government's attention has been drawn to the news-item which appeared in the 'Hindustan Times' dated 21st June, 2002 and 'Rashtriya Sahara' dated the 2nd July, 2002 regarding efforts of IAS officers to get posted themselves in India Tourism offices abroad;

(b) if so, the details thereof; and

(c) Government's reaction thereto?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PERSONNEL, PUBLIC GRIEVANCES AND PENSIONS (SHRIMATI VASUNDHARA RAJE): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) and (c) Given the highly competitive global tourism market and for enhancing the tourism potential of India, there is a need for selecting best and bright officers for posting overseas in tourist offices who can aggressively market the rich cultural, spiritual and natural tourism products of our country and who can help brand Indian tourism products. In order to fulfil this need, the zone of consideration for selection of officers on overseas jobs has been enhanced by considering officers of all organised services having 2 years experience in tourism.
